Good Afternoon:

Can you check the status of the NFB Action Memo? The attorney reviewed it and changed a lot of formatting and deleted some sections that Mark Pane either accepted or wrote. So I sent it back to him on May 12th. Lyndsey and I don't want to make any revisions until Mark accepts those changes or not. After that it should be ready to move up. We are working off the verbal now but setting up and doing all we have been doing so far, the verbal monies are going to go fast.

I asked for a status update last week but have not received a response.

Thanks

Good Morning:

I wanted to check the status of NFB Action Memo review. Lyndsey and I do not want to revise anything until the attorney revisions are reviewed. Most of her comments appear to be formatting and deletions of sections that I thought Mark wanted. So I do not want to have different versions floating around. Obviously, we are working off of a verbal currently but this action memo is going to take some time to approve....so the sooner the better in order not to be forced to stop work. Please let me know.

All is going well here so far. Juggling a lot but making progress. This is not going to be a quick site to complete I can tell you that.

I hope all is well with you both.

Hi Mark:

I just realized you were not copied to Marla's NFB Action Memo review. Please review when you have a chance. I know you have other action memos that are ready to be finalized.

I looked through it and noticed she took out certain sections. Specifically noticed, the site history. I am not sure if this goes against the programs template or not.

Thanks

Eric
